Enforcement, Higher Fees On Rum Urged

Report On Inquiry Is Made By Committee For Legislature

SACRAMENTO (UP)—Tighter local enforcement and higher license fees were recommended by the joint legislative liquor committee today in a report outlining a 14-point program designed to remedy the major evils connected with the distribution, sale and consumption of intoxicating liquor.

A result of months of research and hearings conducted by Senate and Assembly interim committees headed by Senator Ralph E. Swing, San Bernardino, and Assemblyman James Boyle, Los Angeles, the report submitted to the legislature as a basis for proposed changes in the liquor laws recommended in part:

1—A provision prohibiting the sale, except by prescription, of liquors containing more than 60 per cent of alcohol by volume, to curb the traffic in straight alcohol.

2—tightening restrictions of the Fair Trade Act, prohibiting retailers from giving premiums with liquor; preventing wholesalers from operating more than one retail establishment; limiting the number of licenses granted chain organizations.

3—Provide for uniform opening and closing hours and prohibit deliveries during closed periods, on Sundays or election days.

4—In order to make a license valuable, as a deterrent against violation, permit the license, once issued, to continue until revoked, but make the procuring of a license more difficult.

5—Graduate the license fee so the operator in a sparsely settled community doing business in a small way does not have to pay as much as the metropolitan places.

6—Require a bond from all persons engaged in the business.

7—Impose directly upon the local police the duty of enforcing all police regulations as well as the provisions of the act insofar as they relate to the general welfare.

In addition to its outright recommendations, the report held that the State Board of Equalization had been "unjustly criticized" in its efforts to enforce new laws and regulate an industry under changed conditions. It recommended that a fifth member should be elected to the board, to replace the controller who serves as a pro tem member, and to represent Los Angeles County alone.

The report held that the state law did not prohibit saloons or require that food be served with liquor; agreed there was merit in the contention of municipalities that local elective governing boards should pass upon applications for licenses; suggested that licenses should be restricted in proportion to population; recommended that advertising and display of liquor should be restricted and that the liquor business should be handled independently, rather than being made a part of grocery, drug and other stores' departments; suggested that high license fees might help weed out undesirable liquor dealers.

Criticism was directed at federal officers and employees on government reserves such as March Field and Mare Island, for importing liquor and escaping the state tax.

"The highest penalties should be imposed upon anyone who is a party or who conspires to evade payment of any tax imposed upon the use of liquor within the state," the report said.

Gov. Curley In Line For Post At Manila

BOSTON (UP)—The Boston Herald today says retiring Governor James M. Curley of Massachusetts "probably" will be appointed Governor-General of the Philippines "within the next month."

James Roosevelt, the President's eldest son, is "strongly urging" the appointment of Curley to succeed Frank Murphy, recently elected governor of Michigan, according to the Herald. Curley declined to comment.

NAZI—Vice Admiral Rolf Carl, former commander of the German fleet in Spanish waters, who has been made commander-in-chief of the German fleet, succeeding Admiral Richard Forster, retired. Admiral Carl recently sent the note to the Spanish government: "I have ordered my ships to meet with force every unjustified act of force on the part of yours."

Mercury Hits Low For Year

Water Pipes And Cars Damaged By Freeze On Thursday

The official reading for temperature in Placerville Thursday morning was fifteen degrees above zero, the lowest temperature of the current season and the lowest for any year since 1932.

On December 10 of that year, according to Adolph Martin, P. G. & E.-U. S. Weather Bureau co-operating observer, the mercury hit a low of 19 degrees.

The 11th and 12th saw the thermometer rise to 14 degrees and on the 15th, it slipped back to 11 degrees; climbing to 14 degrees on the 16th and to 16 degrees on the 17th.

Some sections of the lower county reported unofficially Thursday morning that temperatures as low as 12 degrees had been recorded.

Water pipes and automobile radiators were frozen in Placerville and in several rural sections.

WAR DANGER IN EUROPE HOLDS, BAILLIE AVERS

NEW YORK (UP)—The menace of a general European war continues, but many diplomats and statesmen abroad believe the danger is less acute than it was a year ago, Hugh Baillie, president of the United Press, told the New York state chamber of commerce in an address today.

"The history of the last 18 months has shown us that wars are not so lightly entered into by major nations as they were prior to 1914," said Baillie, who has just returned from London.

"It takes more to start a big war now than it did 22 years ago. That is why we have been able to go through a year and a half of small wars and threatened big wars without the major catastrophe of a general European conflagration actually being set off.

Without attempting to minimize the continuing danger of war, I believe it is an encouraging circumstance that for many months now we have witnessed a parade of international episodes, any one of which might have been sufficient to start a big war in the days of the Kaiser, and have repeatedly seen Europe apparently teetering on the brink of the gulf, and yet the war has not started."

"The highest penalties should be imposed upon anyone who is a party or who conspires to evade payment of any tax imposed upon the use of liquor within the state," the report said.

Black Oak Is Reported In Rich Diggings

$50,000 In Ore Broken In One Round, Says Reno Man

The Black Oak mine is said to be the richest gold producer that has been found for years in California and alluring stories are told regarding it. The property is situated in Garden Valley, not far from Georgetown, a Reno paper reports.

"Briz" Putman, who is interested in adjacent property, said in Reno this week that one round put in a few days ago broke ore valued at $50,000 in beautiful high grade, and that the production to date is estimated at a million dollars, although the greatest depth attained is only 320 feet. An offer of $700,000 was made recently for the ground, but it was refused, according to report.

Work was started at the surface on a "pocket," which soon played out, but sinking was continued and an eight-foot vein was developed, averaging from $40 to $50 a ton, and containing several rich streaks, that often have substantial widths.

The Black Oak ground comprises only four acres, it is said, and the officials of the Dayton Consolidated of Silver City, has obtained acreage below it, and expects to pick up the ore on its dip, at a depth of several hundred feet, and a prospect drilling campaign is now under way. In that section vertical sidelines are recognized, so that apex suits can not be maintained, it is claimed.

Several Reno mining men have recently become interested in the camp, and the Producer Gold Mines, Inc., has been formed to take over the Russell property of ten acres, said to be on the Black Hawk vein on the north, and since this purchase was made an additional six acres have been acquired, and there is now only twenty acres of other ground lying between the Producer holdings and the Black Oak. L. H. Baker is president of the company and John S. Belford fills the office of secretary-treasurer.

There is said to be a fine showing of ore already developed and it is expected that work will soon be under way, with Putman acting as superintendent.

Some strong operators are being attracted to the district, and it is claimed that General Motors is backing a development program on new ground, where miners are being put on as fast as places for them can be made and the prospect is being equipped in a first-class manner.

3 MORE AUTO FACTORIES TO FACE CLOSING

DETROIT (UP)—Pinched for materials, General Motors Corporation today announced it would close three more big plants in the next two days as federal labor mediators worked rapidly in an attempt to start direct negotiations between capital and labor before strikes and shutdowns paralyze the two-and-a-half-billion dollar corporation.

James F. Dewey, Department of Labor Conciliator, had an early appointment with William S. Knudsen, executive vice president of General Motors. He carried definite proposals which he hoped would be the basis of negotiations to end the shut-down of 14 of the corporation's 69 plants.

Rock Bottom demands of the union, the united press learned, are recognition of the right of collective bargaining and a promise that there will be no discrimination against any man who belongs to or joins the United Automobile Workers of America.

George Lyon has returned to Marine hospital for further treatment of his arm, injured more than a year ago.

The Gold Company, operating on the Veerkamp property in Garden Valley, has about 40 men employed, it is reported.

WAR-TIME NAVY LEADER PASSES AT PHILADELPHIA

PHILADELPHIA (UP)—The navy department at Washington made arrangements today for the burial of Admiral Albert Gleaves, who won fame and commendation from the war-time Secretary of Navy for conveying 1,000,000 American soldiers to France without loss of a single life.

Admiral Gleaves, who observed his 79th birthday on New Year's Day, died yesterday after a two months illness.

He retired from the navy after 58 years of service in 1931. He commanded the presidential yachts during the administration of Theodore Roosevelt and was credited with discovering the deepest spot in the North Atlantic Ocean. He had written several biographies of famous naval heroes.

Negro Hill Resident Buried On Thursday

Funeral services for Irving P. Shaul of Negro Hill, who died Tuesday at a Placerville hospital, were held on Thursday afternoon at the graveside at Middletown cemetery, Rev. J. H. Jameson officiating.

Mr. Shaul was a native of New York, born November 2, 1858 and had been a farmer. He came to California in 1909 and was well and favorably known in the Negro Hill district, where he had made his home for many years.

He has no known surviving relatives.

Cornerstone Of Old Church Is Uncovered

Workmen this week found the cornerstone of the old Presbyterian Church building. The structure, erected in 1864-65, has been razed to make way for business buildings.

The cornerstone was hewn out to form a square opening in the middle of the stone, about 9 inches across and of approximately the same depth. This contained a tin box in which had been placed newspapers, church literature and pamphlets.

Sometime during the years, water had made its way into the chamber and had eroded the box and badly damaged its contents which are still wet and have not been closely examined owing to the danger of damaging them.

The cornerstone box and its contents are in the custody of officers of the church and are being displayed for a few days in the window of the office of this newspaper.

Residents Asked To Use Water Sparingly As Ice Halts Mountain Supply

Power Company Unable To Get Flow Through Ditch; No Sign Of Moderation For Current Cold Snap

City officials on Thursday issued an appeal to residents to be saving in their use of city water, since ice has blocked the Pacific Gas & Electric Company ditch and there is no water coming through.

"At present there is no sign of moderation in the weather," declared J. E. Johnson, district superintendent for the power company. "We have sixty extra men in our camps along the ditch, making a total of 100 men on duty, attempting to get the water through, but so far we have no success."

"There is no cause for alarm," declared Fred N. Hosking, secretary of El Dorado Irrigation District. "We have eighteen feet of water in the reservoir at the five-mile house."

City officials joined Mr. Hosking in pointing out that there is no cause for alarm but asked that all residents use water as sparingly as possible.

Particular stress was made upon the point that no householder should waste water by leaving his faucets turned on during the night in an attempt to avoid a plumbing bill. The water is too precious to be wasted in this manner.

Mr. Johnson said temperatures along the ditch are around 6 and 8 degrees and that it "seems impossible" to get the water through until the weather moderates.

KIDNAP CAR IS REPORTED SEEN NEAR LAS VEGAS

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UP)—Alf Hardy, CCC foreman and former deputy sheriff, today "positively identified" a picture of kidnapped Charles Mattson as the boy he saw last Sunday in an automobile he stopped at Mesquite, Nevada.

The boy tried to talk to him, Hardy said, but a woman who explained that the youth was "seriously ill" pushed him down in the seat and the car drove away.

Hardy had been asked by authorities to watch for a "suspicious car" containing a man, woman and child.

The foreman said he immediately advised the sheriff's office of the incident but was informed that no picture of the 10-year-old Mattson boy was available for him to compare with the youth in the car. Later the sheriff at St. George, Utah, 60 miles north of here, showed him the Mattson boy's picture and Hardy said it was the same boy he had seen in the automobile.

The auxiliary started the New Year with an invitation from Elizabeth Waldron to attend a social afternoon at her home Friday, January 8. This is the first of a series of gatherings the Madam President, Florence Eskew, is planning for 1937. All members are welcome to attend.

Happy New Year

An Advertiser Speaks

Republican,
Placerville, California.
Gentlemen:

I was thumbing through a copy of Ralph Waldo Emerson the other day and I saw a phrase which started me thinking about my many years of friendly association with advertisers and publishers and which prompts me to write you this letter of greeting.

The phrase was as follows: "The silence that accepts merit as the most natural thing in the world is the highest applause."

Now, that sentence may be perfectly true. It certainly expresses the attitude which almost all of us have taken in the past toward many people and many institutions that we admire and appreciate the most. But I believe that the troublesome years which we have now happily put behind us have altered that attitude and made all of us a bit more ready to think of the other fellow and to applaud the job that he is doing, not just silently, but out loud so that he can hear and know!

And so I am writing to you and to a number of other publishers throughout the country to congratulate you on the splendid job which you have been doing and to thank you for the fine contributions which you have made to the growth and prosperity of the Campbell-Ewald Company and its clients.

All advertising media are important, of course, but the Campbell-Ewald Company has always considered the newspaper the most vital factor in influencing the local market for a national producer, and we and our clients continue to hold this same conviction today.

Our largest individual client, the Chevrolet Motor Company, has just completed the most successful year in its history. It has sold 1,125,000 1936 Chevrolets, taking first place in both passenger car and truck sales for the seventh time in the past ten years. It has also sold more than 2,000,000 used cars, breaking all previous sales records in that important field as well. All of which, you will agree, is a magnificent selling achievement.

In that achievement, the newspapers of America—your newspaper—have played an important part, and I want to thank you most sincerely on behalf of the Chevrolet Motor Company and my own organization.

All of our other clients, in many other lines of business, have likewise enjoyed a highly successful and profitable year, as has the Campbell-Ewald Co., itself.

In the achievements of these organizations also the newspapers of America—your newspaper—have played a leading role and I want to thank you on behalf of these clients, too, for the fine support and co-operation which you have always given to them and to us.

This has become a rather long letter, but that line of Emerson's did start me thinking and did cause me to decide to make my appreciation evident.

My thanks to you again and my very best wishes for a Happy, Prosperous New Year in 1937.

Sincerely,

H. T. EWALD, President, Campbell-Ewald Company.

JUST A BUSINESS MAN—That's what former Governor Alfred E. Smith of New York said he was, on his 63rd birthday, recently, as he settled into a chair in his Empire State building office and lighted a long cigar. He said he was pleased by the nation's gains in the last year. He is shown above at his desk reading felicitations

PARADE OF SPORTS

By HENRY McLEMORE
(United Press Staff Writer)

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (UP)—It is a mystery to me why the American thoroughbred race horse isn't taller than a giraffe, longer than a cross-country bus, hasn't got a coat more luxurious than a shampooed ermine, and can't outrun a fire chief's car.

I became mystified along this line today when I read that in the state of Florida alone last season an uneven $23,453,884 was spent on the improvement of the breed of American race horses. That amount was the sum shoved in the pari-mutuel windows at Hialeah and Tropical Parks. Some city cynics say this money constituted bets, but the cynics are wrong, for in this country, where the horse outranks both the dog and the mountain cougar as man's best friend, bets are not bets. It is clearly stated in the charters, or whatever race tracks have, that the sport is conducted solely for the improvement of the breed.

Now if nearly $24,000,000 was spent here in Florida, you can imagine the terrific sum that was spent all over the country in trying to make the thoroughbred stronger, healthier, and happier. It must approach an out and out billion dollars.

Now it seems to me that for a billion dollars America should have prettier horses, and more durable horses, than it has at the present time. This seems doubly true when you remember that millions have been spent on the horse each year for nearly a century.

In my life-time, hundreds of millions have been spent, yet for the life of me I can't see much change in the appearance of the horse. The first horse I ever saw (a Bay five-year-old named Ben, belonging to my uncle Orville) had buck teeth, Burlesque-girl knees, bloodshot eyes, and a hanker's stomach—and so did the last one. The millions haven't helped at all.

And the horse still is fragile as ever. You read every day of some race horse being unable to go to the post because he ate something that upset his stomach, or sprained a fetlock (a fetlock corresponds to the collar bone of the human, I believe) while taking a morning walk through a clover patch. With all the money spent on the horse he should have a stomach capable of digesting bathtub fixtures, and fetlocks stronger than the best ones turned out by Yale.

And certainly he should be much prettier. There's no getting around it—a horse is not pretty in the race. His eyes are too big, for one thing, and his ears stick out for another. To be perfectly honest, a horse looks too much like a horse.

Another thing, horses aren't fast enough to justify the money spent on them. I have seen horses whose improvement I contributed to that couldn't outrun a Billy goat. Malcolm Campbell spent only half a million dollars on Bluebird and reached a speed of 300 miles an hour. Yet the horse is so slow that Jesse Owens, a man on whom not more than $20,000 has been spent, outruns one.

Personally I plan to start trying to improve something else. Just what it will be I am not yet sure but I have a leaning toward the bow tie. I am reasonable certain that if fifteen million dollars was spent on the bow tie

MEN, MUNITIONS FLOW GROWS AS DIPLOMATS TALK

PARIS (Copyright, 1937, by United Press) — Men and munitions poured into Spain today to join the civil war factions while diplomats talked neutrality and the Nationalists hammered at Madrid in desperate assault.

Spanish Loyalists said 9,000 Germans were participating in the Madrid attack; British official quarters were anxious at news of the landing of 10,500 Italians in southern Spain.

But through France there was moving almost a parade of war munition transport, most of it destined for the Loyalists.

It was reported that the American Liner President Harding would reach Havre Saturday with eight American Vulture planes and that nine other American planes were on their way to Cartagena. Loyalist naval base on the Mediterranean, in a freighter, trans-shipped from a Mediterranean port. Seventy American tractors, 40 American motor trucks, an observation balloon and two Pratt and Whitney airplane motors were reported also among recent shipments.

SHIRLEY TEMPLE PAID $69,999 FOR YEAR'S EFFORT IN FILMS

WASHINGTON (U)—Congress, in gossipy "blue book" fashion, has disclosed the names of several thousand Americans who made more than $15,000 in salaries and commissions or bonuses in 1935.

Publisher William Randolph Hearst led the list at $500,000. In the "high ten" with Hearst were three film stars, a movie executive and five business executives.

They included: Mae West, $480,833; C. W. Gutzzeit, Latrobe, Pa., steel executive $398,808; Alfred P. Sloan, Jr., General Motors Corporation president, $374,505; Marlene Dietrich, $369,000; W. R. Sheehan, president of Twentieth Century-Fox Film Corporation, $344,230; William F. Knudson, General Motors executive vice-president, $325,869; Bing Crosby, $318,907; B. D. Miller, president of F. W. Woolworth Co., $309,880, and Thomas J. Watson, president of the International Business Machine Co., $296,028.

The Treasury department furnished the figures to Congress under provisions of an income tax law passed two years ago. They were taken from income tax returns made by the individuals and represent only salaries and commissions or bonuses. Income from investments is not included.

Most of the salaries listed were for the calendar year 1935. Some were for the government's last fiscal year from July 1, 1935 to June 30, 1936. Those making returns had their option of either period.

Other interesting facts and figures

revealed by the list:

That Stan Laurel ($156,266) makes almost twice as much as his comedy partner, Oliver Hardy ($8,316).

That Walter Winchell drew more as a radio artist ($77,500) than he did as a columnist for the New York Mirror ($60,660).

That Max Baer's acting brought him $16,677 from Paramount Productions.

That Seymour Weiss, Louisiana political associate of the late Huey P. Long, earned $92,390 as vice-president of the "Win or Lose" Corporation.

That Charlie Chaplin of the films earned $260,000 as head of his own production house.

That Shirley Temple's acting made her $69,999.

Frank Hints His Ouster "Slated"

MADISON, Wis. (UP) — Glenn Frank defended his 11-year record as president of the University of Wisconsin today before a regent's court which, he hinted, may have already decided to dismiss him.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Dormody are home from a holiday visit to Oakland and the Monterey Peninsula, during which they visited their daughter, Mrs. Helen Dormody Crystal, and their sons, the Doctors Hugh and Horace Dormody.

Garden Valley has enjoyed an extensive home-building development during the past few months, the result of increased activity in mining in the district.

NETHERLANDS PRINCESS IS WED QUIETLY

THE HAGUE (UP) — Crown Princess Juliana, Hieress to the throne of the Netherlands, married Prince Bernhard Zu Lippe-Biesterfeld today in a 15-minute civil ceremony followed by religious confirmation at the Dutch reformed church of St. James.

In taking a German Consort, the Princess Juliana followed the precedent of her mother, Queen Wilhelmina, who married Prince Henry of Mecklenburg in the same church 40 years ago. He died in 1934.

Sharing the spotlight with Juliana, but not official attention, was the wedding of another Juliana in the little town of Oegstgeest, near Leyden. This Juliana Van Der Meer, a housemaid for the widow Lubbe, was born on the same day and hour as the Royal Juliana, and Likewise, married at the same moment. Theirs were the only weddings in the Netherlands today.

Record Net Crowd Watches Perry Win

NEW YORK (UP) — Frederick John Perry of England strode out upon his professional tennis career today with a sensational debut victory under his belt, the roar of a record-breaking crowd ringing in his ears and the jingle of American dollars in his pockets.

Perry, who succumbed to the lure of gold and abandoned his No. 1 amateur standing, wrote success with a capital "S" to his 50-city barnstorming tour by upsetting the dope and trouncing California's Ellsworth Vines, world's pro champion, 7-5, 3-6, 6-4, last night before an audience of 17,680 in Madison Square Garden.
